

The Mennonite Experience during the Holodomor: It's Complicated.

During the Holodomor (1932-33) Mennonites in Ukraine shared many of the same experiences of hunger and premature death as their neighbours. In 1933, after Hitler came to power in Germany, they were often accused by Soviet officials of being Nazi agents and Hitlerists for receiving foreign aid from relatives in the West.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
Dr. Colin Neufeldt
Professor, History
Concordia University of Edmonton

Zoom Webinar Friday, March 25, 2022

7:30 pm Toronto

5:30 pm Edmonton

Webinar Link:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/87123782986>

MODERATOR
Dr. Olga Andriewsky
Associate Professor, History
Trent University,
Peterborough

Ukrainian Canadian Research and Documentation Centre

SHEVCHENKO SCIENTIFIC
SOCIETY OF CANADA

